

“ORAL HISTORY OF KNOWLEDGE” WORKSHOP

THURSDAY, 27 APRIL 2023, ROOM 215, MPIWG

organized by Birgit Nemeč & Tamar Novick

10:00-10:10 Welcome Address

10:10-11:00: Panel I: OH Between Empowerment and Historization: Interviewing Activists

Ketil Slagstad (Charité): “A History of Transgender Medicine in Welfare State Scandinavia: Oral History Interviews with Patients, Activists, and Medical Experts”

Todd Sekuler (HU Berlin, Co-Founder of the European HIV/AIDS Archive): “Withholding and Withdrawing European Activist Oral Histories from the European HIV/AIDS Archive”

11:00-11:10 Coffee Break

11:10-12:00 Panel II: OH and the History of Knowledge

Hanna Worliczek (MPIWG): “Research Interviews with Experts Between Reconstructing Historical Epistemologies, Tracing Implicit Knowledge, Probing Social Realms, and Sensing Mentalities”

Basma Fahoum (Stanford University): “Peasant Narratives and the Colonial Politics of Credibility”

12:00-13:00 Lunch Break

13:00-13:40: Panel III: Using and Publishing OH in Film

Eddie Bolgar (Jarman Lab): “Talking, Heads: Discussing Interview Practices Between Oral History and Documentary Film”

13:40-13:50 Coffee Break

12:50-14:40 Panel IV: Technologies of OH Data Storage and Use

Carolin Pommert (Medical Humanities Library, Charité): “Cataloging Standards for Audiovisual Heritage and Born-Digital Media Art on OH”

Michael Winter (MPIWG): “Commoning Biomedicine: Networking Decentralised Collections of Oral Histories”

14:40-15:00 Concluding Remarks